EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Brands choosing experimental agencies look for clear, results-driven portfolios that showcase standout events through strong visuals and real audience reactions. Successful agencies highlight their unique strengths — whether it's creative storytelling, strategic thinking, or flawless execution — and focus on solving client problems. Brands value partners who can deliver memorable, shareable experiences while ensuring smooth operations and measurable outcomes. To attract ideal clients, The Novus Group should refresh its portfolio with compelling case studies, visuals, and performance data, while also strengthening its online presence through behind-the-scenes content and expert insights.

THE NOVUS GROUP

REAL WORLD EXAMPLES

EX 1: HIREINFLUENCE

- success through staying on top of online trends & taking advantage of the digital sphere of influence
- able to use this digital media experience to attract clients like Southwest Airlines + deliver unforgettable experiences
- ex: used their social media training to put together an Instagram campaign for Southwest Airlines that got over 3 million interactions

EX 2: ZORKA.AGENCY

- success through clear, flexible pricing options that are conveyed directly to potential clients
- has an hourly pricing range ($100-149/hour) and a project range (minimum of $5000 per project)
- this flexibility with costs allows Zorka to connect with multiple clients at different stages of their businesses

PROJECT 1 2025

EX 3: RMNG

- success through mobility and partnership with other enterprises in order to fulfill their goals
- ex: partners with food trucks all over the country to bring memorable experiences, both to their clients and the customers attending their events
- gives them a unique way to showcase their clients to the public + makes the food trucks a profit as well!
